Representation of Sri. K. Narasimhaiengar Asst. Secy on the personal staff of H.H for higher rank in the cadre of Asst. Comrs

343
C.B.

Letter no. P.H. 11/49-50 dated 21.7.49 from the private Secy to H.H. forwarding the representation for consideration, of Sri. K. Narasimhaiengar Asst. Commr doing duty as Asst. Secy on the personal staff of H.H. wherein he has requested that he may be given a higher rank in the cadre ~~among Asst~~ of Asst. Comrs.

Copy of the above representation submitted to the Minister for Fdg by Sri. Narasimhaiengar.

Minute of the Minister Fdg. on it.

There seems to be some justice in his representation.

2) C.B. Collection case C.C. No 5 of 46 relating to the confirmation of certain Ag. Asst. Comrs is placed below for perusal.

5) As long as the principle of recruiting young men as probationers at an intermediate stage in Service continues, Service men will always have to be prepared for such things. It would be unpracticable and highly undesirable to dump the Examination Prisoners of Probationer officers, by, after taking them, promoting over them, all the Service men who would necessarily be older than probationers. The reasons for recruiting young men at an intermediate stage — viz. as Asst. Comms. are sufficiently well known, and need not be elaborated upon here. It has however to be kept in view that we cannot try to compare, and bring on a par, two incomparable groups of officers — a) one those who start as clerks and retire at the end of their service as Asst. Comms or Collectors, and b) those who have an initial and intermediate higher start as Asst. Comms. and are expected to hold district charges & other higher posts and retire as e.g. Comr. or Heads of Depts.

(10) not always. Above me and my batch who passed the civil Service exam went Messrs A.A. Khan and others.

6) There may be a sense of grievance or frustration in the minds of Service men, but this would deserve consideration only if it is justified and if it stands on proper reasons.

7) It would cause considerable dissatisfaction to the officers who have been fixed ahead of them in the present ranks, if they should be made to yield places to Sri. Narasimhiengar. A recent case, that of Sri. K. Narayanaswami, has already resulted in a series of representations from all the officers over whom he was put. Sri. Narasimhaiengar's case for a higher rank had already been considered & turned down. On principle this has to be turned down again for the same reasons.

8) But, it is true that Sri. Narasimhiengar is an officer of exceptional capabilities, and has been carrying on very arduous duties at the Palace, in a very unassuming and satisfactory manner. His merits need to be recognised, & ~~old record~~ Efficiency wherever found has to be, and if a way can be found to help him, without giving room for legitimate discontent to others, above him ~~he could be done~~ whose ranks have been fixed a long time ago, it could be done. He is now getting a P.A. of Rs. 15/- plus a D.A. of Rs 75/-. in addition to his grade pay of Rs 425/- (from 1-10-58). He would reach the maximum of 500/- by 1.10-59, and Even before then he may be getting into the grade of Senior Asst. Comm. with another 7 years of service ahead, and has reasonable chances of becoming a Dy. Comr. by the time he retires. (It is believed he started service as a Shroff/Asst).

9) He suggests however, that he may be given a duty allowance of Rs 150/- instead of his present Rs 75/-. or, given another observable P.A. of Rs 75/-. which would add to his emoluments, but would not harm any of his seniors. His P.S. & H.A. has been granted a duty allowance of Rs 200/-, an allowance of Rs 150/- of this given would not seem to be high. Specially as the post of another Asst. Pte. Secy. has not been filled up Ever since Sri. Sachidanandam Pillay retired.

11) I agree to either of the above two courses. I may however be permitted to explain the sense of grievance referred to at A in the Ch. Secy's note. Even from Sri Nara

Simha, Iyengar's representation it is seen that he makes an exception in favour of Sri M. A. S. Rajan and does not want to go above him. The reason seems to me to be clear. There is a difference between those who have secured ranks in one of the stiffest examinations known to us and those who did not even appear for that examination. The latter are no better than Service men except that they have not got even the experience that long Service confers. This is not a financial point, but I wanted to make clear the implications of the request of Sri Narasimha Iyengar as to why he seeks to go above others but not above Sri. M. A. S. Rajan.

12) May I also bring to notice that direct representations to Hon. Mins, even if they are styled interview memos are not in conformity with the Rules in the Public Service Conduct Rules.

22) Subject with reference to para 21 supra. The Council have concurred in the proposal to grant a special allowance of Rs 150/- P.M. to Sri K. Narasimhaiengar. One of the reasons for showing this concession to him is that he was in additional charge of the duties of Sri Sachidanandam Pillai, Asst. Secretary on the personal staff of H.H. since retired, besides his other various duties as Asst. Secretary to P.S. to H.H.

23) It may, however, be seen that the place of Sri Sachidanandam Pillai has since been filled up (Vide notification* dt. 29/9/49) and that Sri H.S. Mallaraj Urs who has been appointed in this vacancy is senior to Sri K. Narasimha Iyengar and would be eligible to a D.A. of only Rs 75/- P.M. while the latter officer would have to get Rs 150/- P.M. as per the recommendation of the Council. This would render the position of the two officers anomalous which may perhaps be obviated, if the proposed special allowance is termed D.A. and made personal to Sri Narasimha Iyengar or treated as P.A. This is for orders.

'V'

24) The proposal to grant a special allowance of Rs 150/- P.M. to Sri Narasimha Iyengar has been agreed to by Financial Dept. and circulated in council. It is for orders whether a D.S.P. may be put up on the basis of the Council Note.

25) In this connection it is submitted that the Minister* for Home and Law has minuted as follows: — on 5-10-49.

"Sri D. Ramiah, B.A., who has put in a long period of Service and who, I think, is Manager of the Palace Offices was next senior to Sri Sachidanandam Pillai. It seems to me but fair that he must have been promoted in the usual course on Sri S. Pillai's retirement. He could if I understand the situation correctly be the Asstt Secretary in Sri Pillai's place and also carry on the work of Manager. That would mean some status without additional cost".*

26) It is for orders whether this question may be pursued in view of the fact that Sri S. Pillai's place has since been filled up as noted in para 23. Para 21 is also for orders.

Bs 7/10/49

27) Sri K. Narasimha Iyengar, Asst Secy on the Personal Staff of H. H. the Maharaja, has been proposed to be granted a duty allowance of Rs 150/- p.m. instead of the present allowance of Rs 75/- p.m. + Rs 50/- Charge Allowance in consideration of the fact that another post of Asst Secy on the Personal Staff of H. H. has not been filled up since Sri Sachidanandam Pillai retired from service, ~~it has been suggested that the enhanced allowance~~ ~~in the same capacity as in case of the~~ ~~and that Sri Narasimha Iyengar has~~ been in addl. charge of this appointment. Sri H.S. Mallaraj Urs, Asst Comr., has since been posted as Asst Secy on the Personal Staff of H. H. the Maharaja against the vacancy caused by the retirement of Sri Sachidanandam Pillai and the assumed charge of the post on 1-10-49. Sri Mallaraj Urs is senior to Sri Narasimha Iyengar and as Asst Secy he will be drawing a duty allowance of Rs 75/- which is attached to the post. If Sri Narasimha Iyengar is permitted to draw the allowance of Rs 150/- for now proposed to be sanctioned to him, even after Sri Mallaraj Urs assuming charge of the post of Asst Secy, the junior officer (Sri K. Narasimha Iyengar) will be getting a higher allowance than the Senior officer (Sri Mallaraj Urs)

28) The one way of obviating this distinction is to allow both the officers to draw an allowance of Rs 150/- p.m. But the Fin Deptt may not accept this suggestion. The other way is to allow Sri Narasimha Iyengar to draw allowance at the enhanced rate till the date on which Sri Mallaraj Urs entered upon his duties as Asst Secy, when Sri Narasimha Iyengar ceases to be in addl. charge

29) The Chief Hon has minuted at para 16 that Sri Narasimha Iyengar may get the allowance from the date of the order. The matter seems to require

39) This is put up for the first instance for perusal as the proposal now approved by Council will have no effect & needs must be modified. Accordingly, this will be sent to F/D for concurrence and a revised Circular note will be put up.

GO.No. 6346-48/CB 218-49-1 of 21/12/49
permitting Sri K Narasimhacharyar Asst Secy on the personal staff of H.H. to draw a D.A. of Rs 150/- P.M. from the date on which Sri Sathiadanandam Pillai vacated the post till the date on which Sri H.S. Nallaraj has took charge of the Post (Asst Secy with Personal Staff of H.H.) and that thereafter, both officers to draw a D.A. of Rs 75/- P.M. each etc.

Submitted to His Highness.

In view of the fact that Sri K.Narasimha Iyengar, Assistant Secretary on the personal staff of His Highness was in additional charge of the duties of Sri P.G. Sachidanandam Pillai (Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of His Highness) since retired, besides his other arduous duties in the Palace, a proposal to grant a Special Allowance of Rs.150/- per mensem to him was circulated to Hon'ble Ministers in Council and their concurrence thereto was also obtained.

Para 2 of notes

Meanwhile, the post of Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of His Highness which was formerly held by Sri P.G. Sachidanandam Pillai has been filled up and Sri H.S. Mallaraj Urs, Assistant Commissioner has been posted to this charge.

"B"

Sri H.S. Mallaraj Urs is senior to Sri K. Narasimha Iyengar in the cadre of Assistant Commissioners and the Private Secretary to His Highness has sent a recommendation to the effect that Sri Mallaraj Urs may be permitted to draw a duty allowance of Rs.75/- per mensem from the date he assumed charge of the office of the Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of His Highness.

Sri Sachidanandam Pillai was drawing a duty allowance of Rs.75/- per mensem when he was Assistant Secretary and a similar allowance is being drawn by Sri K. Narasimha Iyengar. In the altered circumstance referred to above since the proposal to grant a duty allowance of Rs.150/- per mensem to K. Narasimha Iyengar was circulated to the Council and concurred in by the Ministers, it would be anomalous to allow Sri Narasimha Iyengar to draw an enhanced duty allowance of Rs.150/- per mensem as previously proposed, especially as the reason for showing the concession has ceased to exist with the posting of Sri Mallaraj Urs, Assistant Secretary in the vacancy of Sri Sachidanandam Pillai.

It is, therefore, proposed that Sri K. Narasimha Iyengar may be allowed to draw an allowance of Rs.150/- per mensem from the date on which Sri Sachidanandam Pillai vacated his post till the date on which Sri Mallaraj Urs took charge of the post and thereafter, to permit both officers to draw an allowance of Rs.75/- per mensem each so long as they hold these posts.

Paras 31, 32 & 36 of notes.

The above proposal has been concurred in by the Financial Secretary and approved by me and other Ministers.

I solicit the gracious approval of His Highness to the proposal.

GOVT. OF MYSORE

Sir,

In forwarding herewith for favourable consideration, the representation of Sri K. Narasimhaiengar, B.A., Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of H.H. the Maharaja, pressing his claims for being accorded a higher rank in the cadre of Assistant Commissioners, I have the honour to state that Sri Narasimhaiengar as an assistant both to me and the Huzur Secretary to H.H. the Maharaja, has been doing good work in this Department with heavy responsibility doubled after the retirement of Sri P.G. Sachedanandam Pillai being in charge of Sri Pillai's work also. With his integrity and devotion to duty, he has been dealing with all matters including confidential correspondence where a high degree of loyalty is required, with such exactitude and promptness that there is nothing to be desired. I therefore strongly recommend that his request may be kindly considered with all sympathy in the circumstances explained by him.

I may add here that the service people seem to have a grievance that the Probationary Assistant Commissioners recruited straightaway are placed above them regardless of their previous service and experience, blocking thereby the prospects of their getting promotion to the higher cadre, in view of the Probationary officers being always quite young with a good deal of service before them. I feel therefore that ~~their~~ Sri Narasimhaiengar's grievance is legitimate and real requiring suitable redress.

Yours faithfully,

Private Secretary
to H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore.

S i r,

I beg to submit most respectfully the following representation for favourable consideration by the benign Government.

I joined service on 10th June 1924 and have now put in a total service of more than 25 years. On 26th March 1941, I was appointed as Assistant Commissioner in which capacity I have been serving for the last eight years. I have ten years of service before my retirement and the chances of my getting promotion to the cadre of the Senior Assistant Commissioners are remote in view of the following circumstances:

There are already above me the following eight Assistant Commissioners who were enlisted as Probationary Assistant Commissioners in April 1943 besides four others. The eight probationary Assistant Commissioners Sri M.A.S.Rajan, Sri N.S.Ramachandra, Sri D.J.Balaraj, Sri M.Veeraraj Urs, Sri M.H.Parthasarathy, Sri M.D.Sivananjappa, Sri Y.C.Hombalayya and Janab Mahomed Sirajuddin Meccai, were confirmed in 1945 after two years of probationary service while these officers are still young with over 25 years of service before them.

In these circumstances I pray that in consideration of my long and faithful service of over 25 years and in view of the fact that I have been appointed as Assistant Commissioner much earlier than the above 8 Assistant Commissioners recruited in 1943 on probationary basis and of the fact that I have been drawing higher emoluments than these 8 officers, my case may kindly be considered favourably and my rank in the cadre of Assistant Commissioners may kindly be fixed below that of Sri M.A.S.Rajan who was enlisted to Civil Service by open competition. This will enable me to secure early promotion as Senior Assistant Commissioner and allow me some years of service in that cadre out of my remaining ten years of service.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Yours respectfully,

From

The Private Secretary
to His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, MYSORE.

To

The Chief Secretary
to the Government of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore, BANGALORE.

Sir,

With reference to Government Notification No.2909/C.B.3-49-7, dated the 29th September 1949, posting Sri H.S. Mallaraj Urs, B.A., as Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of His Highness the Maharaja against the post vacant since the retirement of Sri P.G. Sachedanandam Pillai from service, I have the honour to invite reference to G.O.No.3318-20/CB 184-41-10, dated the 20th January 1943 directing that Sri Sachedanandam Pillai be granted a duty allowance of Rs.75/- p.m. as Assistant Secretary to H.H. the Maharaja, and to request that you will be so good as to obtain and communicate orders of Government permitting Sri Mallaraj Urs also to draw the said duty allowance of Rs.75/- p.m. from the date he assumed charge of the office of the Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of His Highness the Maharaja.

Yours faithfully,

Private Secretary
to H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore.

CHIEF SECRETARY
13 OCT 1949
GOVT. OF MYSORE

13.10.49

Draft NOTE FOR CIRCULATION IN COUNCIL.

Sub: Representation of Sri K. Narasimhaiengar Asst. Commissioner, doing duty as Asst. Secretary on the personal staff of His Highness for higher rank in the cadre of Assistant Commissioners.

1. Sri K. Narasimhaiengar, Assistant Commissioner on the personal staff of His Highness is one of the officers confirmed in the cadre of Assistant Commissioners as per notification No.392/C.B.2-46-1 dated 23.7.(1949) 1946 He is now getting a D.A. of Rs.75/- in addition to his grade pay of Rs.425 plus P.A.15/- from 1.10.48; and in G.O. No.6258-60/C.B.326-48-1 dated 3.2.49 a charge allowance of Rs.30/- p.m. being 1/10 of the minimum of the post of another Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of His Highness has been sanctioned to him tenable ~~to~~ so long as he is in additional charge of the post held by Sri Sachidanandam Pillai since retired.

2. He has now represented that the marginally noted 8 Probationary Assistant Commissioners enlisted in 1943 and confirmed in 1945 have been placed above him and that, in view of his long service of 25 years and of the fact that he has been appointed as Assistant Commissioner much earlier than these officers and also of the fact that he has been drawing higher emoluments than them, his rank may be fixed just below Sri M.A.S. Rajan (who was enlisted to Civil Service by open competition) so as to enable him to secure early promotion as Senior Assistant Commissioner.

1. Sri M.A.S. Rajan
2. " N.S.Ramachandra
3. " D.J.Balaraj
4. " M.Veeraraj Urs
5. " M.H.Parthasarathi
6. " M.D.Shivananjappa,
7. " Y.C.Hombalayya
8. Janab Md. Sirajuddin.

3. The Private Secretary to His Highness has reported that the service people have a grievance that the Probationary Assistant Commissioners recruited straight away, are placed ~~xxx~~ above them regardless of their previous service and experience and that the grievance of Sri Narasimhaiengar is legitimate and real requiring redress.

4. I have noted on the file as follows: on 5.8.49 :—

"As long as the principle of recruiting young men as Probationers at an intermediate stage in service continues, service men will always have to be prepared for such things.. It would be impracticable and wholly undesirable to damp the enthusiasm and keenness of Probationer officers, ~~viz.,~~ by, after taking them, promoting over them, all the service men who would necessarily be older than probationers. The reasons for recruiting young men at an intermediate stage - viz., as Asst. Commissioners are sufficiently well-known, and need not be elaborated upon here. It has however to be kept in view that we cannot try to compare, and bring on a par, two incomparable groups of officers - (a) one, those who start as Clerks and retire or are expected to retire, at the end of their service as Asst. Commissioners or Amildars, and b) those who have an initial and intentional higher start as Asst. Commissioners and are expected to hold District charges and other higher posts and retire as Deputy Commissioners or Heads of Departments.

Not always. Above me and my batch who passed the Civil Service Exam. went Messrs. A. A. Khan and others. Intd. M. S. (7.1. Secy)

5 There may be a sense of grievance or frustration in the minds of service men, but this would deserve consideration only if it is justified

and if it stands on proper reasons.

It would cause considerable dissatisfaction to the officers who have been fixed already in their respective ranks, if they should be made to yield places to Sri Narasimhiengar. A recent case, that of Sri K. Narayanaswamy, has already resulted in a series of representations from all the officers over whom he was put. Sri Narasimhaiengar's case for a higher rank had already been considered and turned down. On principle this has to be turned down again for ~~khixxxxxxxxx~~ the same reasons.

6. But, it is true that Sri Narasimhaiengar is an officer of exceptional capabilities, and has been carrying on very arduous duties at the Palace, in a very ~~unassuming~~ unassuming and satisfactory manner. His services need to be recognised, as efficiency wherever found has to be, and if a way can be found to help him, without giving room for legitimate discontent to others above him whose ranks have been fixed a long time ago, it could be done. He is now getting a P.A. of Rs.15/- plus a D.A. of Rs.75/- in addition to his grade pay of Rs.425/- (from 1.10.48). He would reach the maximum of 500/- by 1.10.51 and even before then he may be getting into the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioners ~~xixkxx~~ with another 7 years of service ahead, and has reasonable chances of becoming a Deputy Commissioner by the time he retires. (It is believed he started service as a Steno-typist).

7. It is suggested however, that he may be given a duty allowance of Rs.150/- instead of the present Rs.75/- or given another absorbable P.A. of Rs.75/- which would add to his emoluments, but would not harm any of his seniors. As the P.S. to H.H. has been sanctioned a Duty allowance of Rs.200/-, an allowance of Rs.150/- to this officer would not seem to be high, especially as the post of another Assistant Private Secretary has not been filled up ever since Sri Sachidanandam Pillay retired."

8. The Financial Secretary has noted on the file on 5/8/49 as follows:

"I agree to either of the above two courses. I may however be permitted to explain the sense of grievance referred to at A in the Chief Secretary's note. Even from Sri Narasimha Iyengar's representation it is seen that he makes an exception in favour of Sri M.A.S. Rajan and does not want to go above him. The reason seems to me to be clear. There is a difference between those who have secured ranks in one of the stiffest examinations known to us and those who did not even appear for that examination. The latter are no better than service men except that they have not got even the experience that long service confers. This is not a financial point, but I wanted to make clear the implications of the request of Sri Narasimha Iyengar as to why he seeks to go above others but not above Sri M.A.S. Rajan.

10

9. May I also bring to notice that direct representations to Hon. Ministers even when they are styled interview memos are not in conformity with the rules in the Public Service Conduct Rules."

On 16/8/49.

Council File No. 741/49-52
FOR DISPOSAL BY CIRCULATION
ofc. 21.11.49.

CIRCULATION NOTE.

Subject:- Representation of Sri K. Narasimha Iyengar, Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of His Highness the Maharaja -- Revised proposals for granting duty allowances to Sri K. Narasimha Iyengar and Sri P.C. Mallaraj Urs -- Assistant Commissioners doing duty as Assistant Secretaries on the Personal Staff of His Highness the Maharaja.

In Council File No.336/49-50 dated 20-9-1949, a proposal was circulated to grant a special allowance of Rs.150/- to Sri K.Narasimha Iyengar, Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of His Highness from the date of order.

In concurring with the above proposal, the Minister for Finance and Industries and the Minister for City Municipalities and Rural, have minuted as follows:

Minutes of the Minister for Finance and Industries.

"Sri Panaiah, B.A., who has put in a long period of service and who I think is Manager of the Palace Offices was next senior to Sri Sashidharandam Pillai. It seems to me but fair that he must have been promoted in the usual course on Sri K.Pillai's retirement. He could if I understand the situation correctly, be the Assistant Secretary in Sri K.Pillai's place and also carry on the work of Manager. That would mean some status without additional cost.- I wish this could be considered!!

Minutes of the Minister for City Municipalities & Rural.

"Rs.150 special allowance may be sanctioned. The main question of fixing the rank some way must be explored so that there may be no discontent among service men and probationers".

The Chief Minister's minute dated 16-5-1949 which is as under,

Minutes of this point:

"The general issue raised, viz., that probationers nominated should not take precedence over others who have a longer record of service cannot be dealt with now". Since a long time, cannot be embarked upon Any deviation from the practice that has come down without examining carefully all aspects of the matter. This aspect of the matter may be lie over for the present."

Meanwhile, the post of Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of His Highness the Maharaja which was formerly held by Sri P.C. Sashidharandam Pillay, has since been filled up and Sri P.C.Mallaraj Urs, Assistant Commissioner has been granted posted to this charge.

Sri P.C. Mallaraj Urs is senior to Sri K.Narasimha Iyengar in the cadre of Assistant Commissioners and the Private Secretary to His Highness has made a recommendation to the effect that Sri Mallaraj Urs may be permitted to draw a Duty Allowance of Rs.75/- p.m. from the date he assumed charge of the office of the Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of His Highness the Maharaja.

Sri Gandidurandan Pillay was drawing a duty allowance of Rs.75/- p.m. when he was Assistant Secretary and a similar allowance is being drawn by Sri K. Narasimha Iyengar. In the altered circumstances referred to above since the proposal to grant a special allowance of Rs.150/- was circulated to the Council and was concurred in by the Ministers, it would be unsuitable to allow Sri Narasimha Iyengar to draw an enhanced duty allowance of Rs.150/- p.m. as previously proposed, especially as the reason for showing the concession to him has ceased to exist with the posting of Sri Pallaraj Urs as Assistant Secretary in the vacancy of Sri Gandidurandan Pillay.

It is, therefore, proposed that Sri Narasimha Iyengar may be allowed to draw an allowance of Rs.150/- p.m from the date on which Sri Gandidurandan Pillai vacated his post till the date on which Sri Pallaraj Urs took charge of the post and therefore to permit both officers to draw an allowance of Rs.75/- each so long as they hold these posts.

The Financial Secretary has concurred in these proposals and the Chief Minister has approved of the matter being disposed of by circulation.
